Man seriously injured in bar -- but no witnesses

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

No one "could or would" identify those responsible for an assault a month ago in a West Capitol Avenue bar, reports Lieutenant Tod Sockman of the West Sacramento Police Department. Meanwhile, victim Alfonso Medina was last reported to be in a medically induced coma after being hit.

Sockman said the incident occurred at the River's Edge Bar, 2125 West Capitol Avenue, at about 8 p.m. He added, in an email:

"When officers arrived, Medina was bleeding from his left eye and it was swollen shut. Medina was also bleeding from the head. Medina was interviewed on scene and stated two suspects hit him and he fell to the ground. Medina was unable to identify the suspects. A second victim was assaulted by two male suspects just prior to Medina being assaulted, and he ran out of the bar immediately after, and did not see Medina being assaulted."

"Officers attempted to interview witnesses, but no one could or would identify the suspects," continued Sockman. "What we really need is a witness to come forward and ID the suspects. So far, no one will. We have all spoken with different family members (of Medina), and they all know we still need a witness."

Anyone with information is asked to call the WSPD Investigations Bureau, 617-4915.

A high school students' art show was held April 12 . The show was sponsored by the West Sacramento Art Guild. The awards given to the students were funded by a grant to the guild by the Parks and Recreation Department of the City of West Sacramento.

The art was divided into three divisions: two dimensional art, taught by Joe Schumacher, three dimensional art taught by Paul Jones and Photography, taught by Jennifer Schumacher.

The awards were given to the top three artists in each division. There were also seven "honorable mentions."

The winners in the three dimensional art division were:
1st place—Jorge Macias
2nd place—Alesya Gaponova
3rd place Vera Akhanova

Honorable mentions were awarded to Ashley Boone and Ana Ledezma

The winners in the three dimensional art division were:
1st place Kraisit Chaikaeo
2nd place Victor Avdeyev
3rd place Sonia Bola

Honorable mentions were awarded to Victorya Van Buren, Alexis Garcia and Katie Saleeba

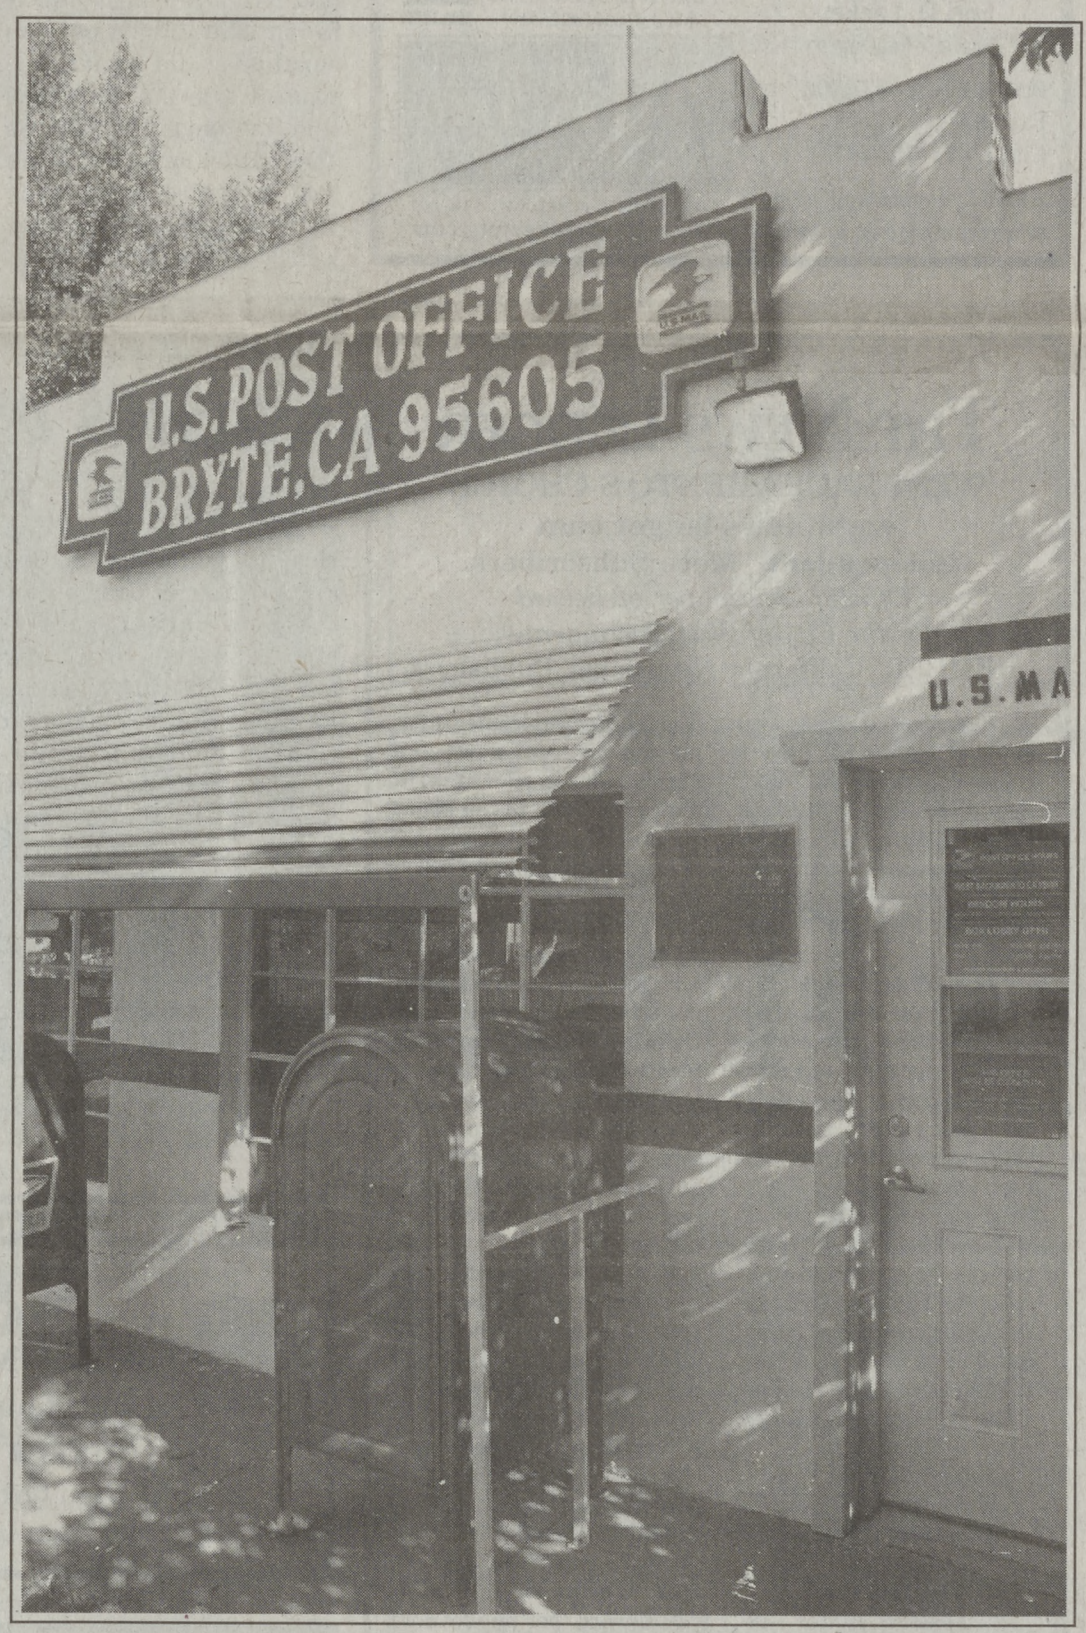
The winners in the photography division were:
1st Alisha Prabhakar
2nd Steven Ancheta
3rd Andrew Baylon

Honorable mentions were awarded to Keiko Mertz and Victoria Vlasov

The awards were gift certificates for a Sacramento Art store totaling over $800.

USPS tells customers Bryte Post Office will close in early June

Locals had fought to keep facility from the chopping block



The old Bryte Post Office features wood panelling and brass and "old timey" charm inside

The old Bryte Post Office at 1548 Lisbon Avenue in the city's northeast has served customers in the neighborhood for decades. But it looks like the last time for customers to check their P.O. box or buy some stamps there will be at 3 p.m. on Saturday, June 4.

Gary Ruiz, a spokesperson for the U.S. Postal Service, confirmed Monday that USPS has notified local customers of the closure. In the agency's words, "a final determination has been made to consolidate the Bryte Branch Post Office. . . with the Broderick Branch Post Office located at 900 Sacramento Avenue."

The Broderick branch will get new post office boxes to serve those customers transferring from Bryte.

Ruiz provided a copy of the USPS letter to the News-Ledger. The letter also advises that P.O. boxes may be rented at 1601 Merkley Avenue or at 3775 Industrial Boulevard in West Sacramento as well.

Neighbors and community activists have fought for several years to keep the branch open in the face of USPS budget cuts. They've argued that local residents – many of whom do not drive – needed a postal branch in Bryte.

Bill Kristoff, a West Sacramento City Councilman and former postal manager in West Sacramento, talked about the branch to the News-Ledger in 2009:

"It gives a lot of residents who live in the Bryte area someplace to go, even if it's to walk to the post office and mail a letter or buy a stamp. It's something for people to

CHRISTOPHER CABALDON
Appointed to interstate commission

Governor appoints mayor to commission

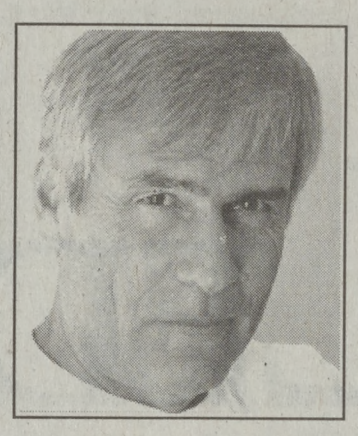
Governor Jerry Brown has appointed West Sacramento Mayor Christopher Cabaldon, a fellow Democrat, to the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education. The organization represents 15 member states including California.

The post requires State Senate confirmation, and does not include compensation.

Cabaldon, 45, has been the city's mayor since 1998. His professional posts have included positions involving education and public policy. He is a principal at Capital Impact, LLC, previously served with EdVoice, and was vice chancellor of the state community college system from 1998-2003.

Growing up in Mao's China

My Back Pages



By Daryl Fisher

For many years I have enjoyed having pen pals from around the world and one of my favorites is a very nice and intelligent woman named Ning, a Chinese national who now lives in New Zealand, having moved there awhile back when she married a man from that beautiful country. The world is rapidly becoming a smaller place and of all the countries on earth, China is the one which has always fascinated me the most. And with its emergence as the world's next great superpower, it seems to me that we should all want to better understand the place that is now the home of almost twenty percent of the world's population. So here, in her own words, is a little of what Ning has told me about her beloved China:

"When I was young, my family lived in a large courtyard in Beijing that was home to 17 other families, too. The part of the courtyard we lived in had two rooms, and we slept, cooked, ate, and studied in them. My father and mother lived in one of the rooms, and my two brothers and I lived in the other. Both rooms were about 20 square meters, very small. There was no sofa, TV, refrigerator or washing machine. Just beds, tables, a few chairs and one radio set. We went to a public toilet that was made out of concrete, and we also used public showers. In winter our two rooms were very cold. We had a small coal stove, but we didn't have enough money to buy coal. And food, meat, and even cotton to make warm clothes were not easy to get in China at that time. Food was rationed, and we never had enough, so we always looked forward to Chinese New Year, because that was the only time we got new clothes and nice food. And on my birthday, I would usually get two eggs, too. Life was very difficult, but my family didn't feel the hardship, and there was much happiness and joy.

"When it was time for me to go to Five Seven Cadre School, my family was separated into four parts. We all lived in different dormitories. The girl dormitory room I lived in had five other girls and it faced the north, so no sunshine could get into the room. I slept on what was called a `tongpu', which was very hard. I never slept on a real mattress until many years later. And the nearby well water we used was very bitter and astringent and not for drinking, only for washing, and we needed to go about one kilometer to get drinking water. We carried the water with the help of a `briandan', which is a long pole made of bamboo that has big buckets on both ends. This was a very rough job and I always had to stop and rest at least twice and my shoulders would be very red and painful when I returned with the drinking water. And I have always thought that I would have been much taller if I hadn't had to carry all that heavy water on my shoulders when I was young.

"After I graduated from high school in 1974, the Cultural Revolution was part of everyone's life in China, and educated youth were taken out of the cities and sent to rural areas. Chairman Mao said the Cultural Revolution would strengthen Chinese socialism, but during the decade that it went on, millions of people were persecuted and forcefully displaced. At the time, though, my classmates and I were full of high passion when we came to Yongning commune in Yanqing country, which is about 80km from Beijing. We settled in a village named Donghuiling and slept on a long `kang', which was built of bricks and concrete, and it was big enough for six people to lay down.

Obituaries

Jay Allen Baker

Jay Baker passed away on April 15, 2011 in his West Sacramento residence at the age of 61. He was born on December 9, 1949. He was raised in Sacramento and graduated from Grant Union High School in 1968. He was a proud veteran of the US Air Force and served as a fighter jet mechanic in Thailand during the Vietnam War. He was known throughout the Sacramento Valley for his talent as a residential and commercial HVAC technician. His humor, integrity, love of hunting and cooking, and his love for his children will always be remembered.

Jay is survived by his son, Tyler Baker (Barbara), and daughter Majel Baker; granddaughter Annabell Baker; and sisters Meredith Johnson and Harriet Kramer. A commemoration of his life will be held on May 15, 2011 from 2-6 pm at the VFW Hall, 905 Drever Street in West Sacramento. Please RSVP to Barbara at 792-9868. Cremation arrangements were handled by River Cities Funeral Chapel.

Good Raider pitching beats El Dorado High

River City High School Boys Baseball faced El Dorado Cougars on Thursday, May 5, 2011. Both teams played very well, shutting down El Dorado with great pitching. Javier Martinez, a Junior on the Varsity team, held El Dorado to one hit and no runs. Lathon Andrews, a Freshman on the JV team struck out 8 batters. Final score JV 12-2 (W) Varsity 3-0 (W)

The next and final home game was yesterday (too late for publication of results) against Liberty Ranch. Varsity Playoff information is to be announced.

Raider tennis team heads to quarterfinals after 'co-champion' title

The River City High School tennis team squeaked past visiting Bret Harte last week 4 to 3 in a Sac-Joaquin Section Division III playoff match. The victory over the Mother Lode League co-champions in the round of 16 matchup moves RC on to a quarterfinal contest this week at Escalon.

Michelle Truong and Mary Neverov earned the first Raider win against Bret Harte, taking the #1 girls doubles match 6-2,6-3. RC dropped the boys singles and mixed doubles matches, but Victor Vang teamed with Rudy Maltez for a 6-0,7-6(3) at #2 boys doubles to even the day's score at 2-all. A three-set Bullfrog win at #1 boys doubles gave the visitors a brief 3-2 lead but Jai London won the girls singles match 6-3,6-4 and Elizabeth Maniulit and Christine Maltez clinched the RC trip to the Section's Elite Eight when they took #2 girls doubles 7-6(4),6-2.

River City, the co-champions of the Sierra Valley Conference this season, improved to 20 and 4 in 2011.

The right to a defense

By Beth Gabor
Yolo County Public Information Officer

In the landmark 1963 case of Gideon v. Wainwright, the U.S. Supreme Court interpreted the Constitution and held that a fundamental and essential prerequisite to a fair criminal justice system is the right to be defended by competent and effective lawyers. The court stated, "... reason and reflection require us to recognize that in our adversary system of criminal justice, any person haled into court, who is too poor to hire a lawyer, cannot be assured a fair trial unless counsel is provided for him. This seems to us to be an obvious truth." Of all the services Yolo County provides, only the services provided by the Public Defender's Office are mandated by the Constitution.

The Yolo County Public Defender's Office represents, in all stages of criminal proceedings, indigent persons accused of crimes. Primarily, the office provides legal services to indigent adults accused of felony and misdemeanor criminal violations, and to juveniles prosecuted for alleged conduct that would be criminal if they were adults. The office also represents proposed conservatees in mental health proceedings when the person is alleged to be unable to care for him or herself; ultimately another individual, a conservator, may be appointed to make critical life decisions for the conservatee. In some cases, the Public Defender's Office provides legal services to individuals whose parenting interests may be affected.

morning we got up and went to the grain field to work. Then we came back three hours later and ate our breakfast. Then we went right back to the fields to work and I would get so tired that I often laid down on the ground to take a break, and I didn't even care if the earth was muddy and cold. We would have a lunch break but then we would work until the sun went down and everyone always felt exhausted at the end of the day. We took turns cooking, cleaning, and fetching water, and on rainy days when we couldn't work, we had to attend classes were we would read government files and newspapers, although I often crocheted when I was supposed to be studying. But the work I hated and feared the most was weeding and thinning extra seedlings. We had to use a small hoe and I had to squat down and slowly move forward. It was a very hard job for me and I couldn't squat down for a long time, so I always crawled to do this job, like a cat, and always fell behind the others. It was a very difficult time, and we couldn't wear pretty dresses or any makeup, and the wind and sun made our faces look very rough and dark.

"1974 was not a good year for me. My father passed away, my best friend died in an accident, and I got very sick with acute jaundice hepatitis. Plus everything in China was changing so fast. There was a saying that `China lags behind the USA 200 years!' and we needed to find a way to feed all our people and give them better lives. For instance, in my youth, it was unthinkable to have a car and a house with a bathroom in it. But now everywhere you look, there is new construction and modern buildings. The good side of that is that the Chinese are getting richer and closer to the rest of the industrialized world. Chinese people are also studying more, starting up businesses, and traveling, something that was impossible for my parents' generation. But the bad side is that people are no more as innocent and pure as before. There is a decline of moral standards and people are becoming much more selfish. There seems to be no end to the pursuit of material things. Plus the pollution is very heavy and getting worse, and both food and water safety are terrible in China. And corrupt government officials seem to be everywhere.

"What I don't think Americans understand about China is that Chinese people are no different from the rest of the world and we would like to be free and live under democracy and not communism. Nevertheless, for ordinary Chinese, as long as the standard of living is improving and the government is not too much pressing on personal freedom, living is now tolerable. Traditionally we expect a kind leader and that has always been important. As for me, I have come to love living in New Zealand and I'm getting more and more used to this very different life. So although China will always hold so many special memories for me, and although it is responsible for making me the person I am, I much prefer the life I now have."

Police log

Information for this 'Police Log' has come directly from original police reports and documents It's just a sampling of the reports, calls for service and arrests made by the West Sacramento Police Department during the past week. The information includes citizen complaints and other statements that have not substantiated or verified by an investigation or a courtroom.

May 4, 8:46 a.m.
A resident of Hemlock Street called to compliment some police officers.

May 4, 2:18 p.m.
A victim suffered a possible broken nose as two bikes were stolen during an incident at the skate park on Evergreen Avenue.

April 4, 2:50 p.m.
A "scissor lift" valued at $3,000 was stolen from a Riverside Parkway business sometime after April 7.

May 4, 9:23 p.m.
A bus driver reported being spat upon by a passenger at about 11:35 a.m. at a bus stop on the corner of West Capitol and Merkley.

May 5, 1:48 a.m.
Three male subjects stole some beer from a Riverpoint Court store, leaving in an older gray or green sedan with no license plates.

May 5, 6:21 a.m.
At a market on Third Street, a man was reported to be unconscious and bleeding from stab wounds to the arms and chest.

May 5, 12:53 p.m.
A woman reported finding her stolen car near a fast food restaurant at Stillwater Road.

May 5, 2:03 p.m.
Police were requested at a private school on Anna Street. A child had been disrupting a class and was now in the principal's office. Further details not given.

May 5, 7:09 p.m.
A woman came to the police lobby. She said she had been prescribed some medication, but a Yolo organization had told her she had to turn it in or face prosecution. The woman "also believed someone at (the organization) is possibly harassing her grandchildren since she refuses to turn in the (drugs) to them."

May 5, 7:45 p.m.
An off-duty Sacramento police officer at Raley Field flagged down a West Sacramento officer, and directed the West Sac officer to a 45-year old male transient sitting near the main gate. The transient was a 45-year old "parolee at large" who was then arrested.

May 5, 8:30 p.m.
A woman from Burney, California, reported having left her cell phone on a shelf in a Riverpoint Court retail store. When she returned for it, it was gone.

May 5, 8:50 p.m.
A caller (possibly the same subject as above) told a dispatcher that her stolen cell phone had a GPS tracking feature, and it was now showing its location as a motel on Halyard Drive.

May 6, 2:13 a.m.
A "beer run" theft occurred at a market on the 800-block of Harbor Blvd.

May 6, 4:10 a.m.
A man said his Pierce Street brother came to his Sacramento residence and punched him, knocking out teeth. Sacramento police wouldn't take a report. The victim wanted West Sacramento officers to contact the brother, "because he is high on methamphetamine and (the caller) doesn't want him to hurt anyone else."

May 6, 5:12 a.m.
On Anna Street, a vehicle was found burglarized. Thieves took speakers, a stereo and amplifier. A stereo was gone from a second car as well.

May 6, 6:11 a.m.

May 6, 4:25 p.m.
A caller reported buying a Honda Accord from a Harbor Boulevard business and finding that its odometer had been "rolled back." The car also had mechanical flaws making it undriveable. The caller believed the business was selling stolen or fraudulent vehicles, and refusing to give refunds.

May 7, 1:27 a.m.
A woman called police from Lassik Street. A cab driver was yelling at her that she owed him money for cleaning, after her friend vomited in the cab.

May 7, 3:13 a.m.
A Danbury Court resident reported asking the driver of a parked car outside to turn down his loud music. The driver responded by saying he was "going to get his 'nine,'" which the resident believed meant the man was going to get a gun. The vehicle and music were now turned off, but the resident asked police to move the individual along.

May 7, 9:33 a.m.
At a motel on the 1900-block of West Capitol, a man said a woman had thrown an egg at his door, and was vandalizing a neighboring door when the man interrupted and stopped her. The woman then "used the restroom on the ground," and the man was upset that he would have to clean that up.

May 7, 2:45 p.m.
A Maple Street apartment was reported to have been burglarized. The caller said a roommate's medications had been stolen, sometime on May 4.

May 7, 11:28 a.m.
Police responded to the 900-block of West Capitol after a man was reported to be screaming at a motel. The man was contacted in a room and appeared to be under the influence. He refused to comply with instructions to sit on a chair outside. The man was on "searchable probation," and a search of the room turned up methamphetamine paraphernalia. He was arrested.

May 7, 5:38 p.m.
A witness said there was a minivan in the parking lot of a Del Monte Street/Cebrian Street business, running a hose to a fuel access cover. The driver was possibly stealing fuel.

May 7, 7:04 p.m.
A Fremont Blvd. man said somebody had set up a Facebook (social networking site) page with his nine-year old daughter's name and personal information on it. The girl did not have access to the Internet or knowledge of how to do this herself. The man wanted to know his options.

May 7, 7:37 p.m.
Counterfeit money was reported found at a store on Riverpoint Court.

May 7, 8:21 p.m.
A woman said she had been loading her shopping into her car near a store on Ikea Court, when a man nearby claimed she scratched his car with her car door. The man then pushed against her door while she was leaning inside it into her car. She was not injured. The male suspect was with a woman and two juveniles.

NEWS-LEDGER EDITORIAL

Farewell, old friend

It's one of the cutest buildings in town. But its time as a post office is past.

The Bryte Post Office has been slated for closure and then saved at the last minute several times over the last couple of decades. Next month, it probably won't get a reprieve. The little north-area facility will close in early June, and those who rent P.O. boxes inside its paneled hall will see their rentals transferred eastward, to the Broderick Post Office on Sacramento Avenue. Customers will need to find a new place to buy stamps.

A lot of people have depended on the Bryte Post Office over the years, including a fair number of first-generation immigrants (from Russia, Mexico, Portugal and a fair number of other places) who have sent money home or waited for family news in the mail. Some of these folks don't have cars or driver's licenses, and have counted on being able to walk to their neighborhood post office, and being able to get some personal service from the lone staffer behind the service window.

But times are tough for most government agencies, and doubly tough for the U.S. Post Office, which is seeing the use of "snail mail" drop as customers switched first to faxes and now to email as quicker ways to communicate and send documents.

So, while neighborhood activists and others have fought to save the Bryte Post Office over the years, it's been clear they've really just been fighting a delaying action.

In the northern half of West Sacramento are a fairly central post office branch on Merkley Avenue, another in Broderick, a "hub" facility on Industrial Boulevard, and the old-timey branch in Bryte. South of the barge canal there are no post offices.

Something had to go.

The Bryte Post Office served this community well for many years. It will be missed.

A letter-writer took exception last week to the News-Ledger's opinion that the mayor's criticism of the school district amounted to a turf battle. In the same edition, the school superintendent published here a lengthy rebuttal to the mayor's comments. The rebuttal included a statement saying that Mayor Cabaldon had ignored the district's excellent financial health and that Cabaldon's "disregard for students' significant academic gains. . . is evidence of the inconvenience or threat he perceives toward his objective to 'save our schools' through the efforts of city government."

Call that disagreement whatever you want to call it.

WUSD's school board and its employees run the schools, and the mayor has his bully pulpit.

Both sides have every right to speak out. The question is whether they can do what they both say they want to do, and what WUSD says it has tried to do: work together to benefit the schools.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Bullies tolerated

My wife and I recently requested a meeting with the VP of Bridgeway Island Elementary School where my son was facing trouble with bullies. I never thought the school would turn out to be bigger bullies than the students. Without my knowledge or consent, my child was interrogated by the principal and the VP. They convinced my son that he was somehow responsible for those who try to hurt him. The VP later called and said that he felt the issue was now resolved. We feel differently.

We suffered the indignity of watching everyone, from the VP, principal, district staff and superintendent scramble to protect their interests, choosing policies over security and self-righteousness over change. My appeal to the school board sent me right back to the people who had thus far simply refused to help my son. Clearly, at every level, the WUSD administration felt it was their job to raise my child, and my job was to fall in line.

After exhausting every avenue within the system, I consulted with a lawyer who assured me that the school had been wrong, but since my son had only suffered emotional and psychological abuse without someone breaking his arm or leaving him in a bloody heap, there was little recourse available. I guess I was crazy for trying to intervene before my son was more seriously injured. I tried to set up an independent study program to get through the end of the year, but the principal, unhappy with my questioning her actions, flatly refused.

So my son will be moved to another school without so much as an "I'm sorry." Ironically, the bullies in my son's school have yet to be dealt with. I can hardly blame these vicious children for tormenting my boy; they have simply become what they beheld, and they have learned their lessons well.

important? Because Americans believe in fairness. They accept the idea that laws should be applied equally and that punishment should fit the crime. However, many people also believe that they, personally, will never need the services of a criminal attorney, much less a lawyer from the Public Defender's Office. If they are lucky – in life and all it has to offer – that is true. What every person should appreciate, though, is that the Public Defender's Office, in addition to representing people individually, also provides a system of checks and balances on the criminal justice system as a whole. It guarantees that no agency – whether that be the District Attorney's Office or a police department – is allowed to operate unchallenged and unquestioned. The Constitution is very much a reaction to the events that came before it.

"Our founding fathers were careful to reject any system which vested in a single person or group unlimited powers," explains Yolo County Public Defender Tracie Olson. "The attorneys in my office seek to ensure that the rights of individuals are not whittled

PICKS OF THE WEEK

The Other Woman (R) — Natalie Portman stars as the titular other woman in this melodrama about infidelity, divorce and grief. Portman plays Emilia, a woman who has an affair with Jack (Scott Cohen), the husband of gynecologist Carolyne (Lisa Kudrow). Jack divorces and marries Emilia, and they have a baby daughter who dies three days later of SIDS. In her grief, Emilia tries to forge a bond between herself and her stepson, but Carolyne does whatever she can to prevent Emilia from "stealing" her son from her too. Gah. This movie is so Chick-Flicky, I actually grew an ovary while writing this synopsis.

The Hustler (Unrated) — Paul Newman's awesome performance as pool shark "Fast Eddie" Felson makes "The Hustler" one of the greatest gritty, noir pictures Hollywood ever cranked out. Now, you can see it in all its high-def glory in this new remastered Blu-ray release.

After a crushing defeat at the hands of the legendary Minnesota Fats (Jackie Gleason in the role of a lifetime), Eddie hits the skids. He hooks up with an alcoholic socialite (Piper Laurie) and a ruthless financial backer (George C. Scott), who offers Eddie one last chance at the big money.

The Mechanic (R) — Jason Statham stars in this remake of the classic 1972 Charles Bronson action flick. Statham plays Arthur Bishop, a successful "mechanic" (hitman) nearing retirement, who trains his young replacement (Ben Foster). Although the film has its share of cool action sequences, "The Mechanic" doesn't have the same Statham-y oomph as his "Crank" or "Transporter" films.

"The Mechanic" isn't a horrible film, nor is it as good as the original, but it's still worth a look.

The Comancheros (50th Anniversary Edition) (G) — John Wayne stars as Big Jake Cutter, a Texas Ranger who teams up with gambler Paul Regret (Stuart Whitman) to infiltrate an evil gang of Comancheros — men

REGULAR AGENDA

1. Public Hearing on West Coast Recycling Group to Consider Certification of the Environmental Impact Report and Approval of the Conditional Use Permit. (Tilley)

West Coast Recycling Group (WCRG) proposes to develop approximately 15 acres at the Port of West Sacramento in the City of West Sacramento to construct and operate a scrap metal shredding and recycling facility. The project site is on formerly used industrial land located at 3125 Industrial Boulevard. The project site is located in the northwestern portion of the Port facility. Operations at the proposed facility would include scrap metal sorting and scrap metal shredding, material separation and processing to extract usable material, and stabilization of nonmetallic material to make it useful as sanitary day cover in landfills. The vehicles that are to be shredded on-site will already have been dismantled by other companies to remove vehicle fluids, tires, batteries, and reusable parts. The facility would employ emission controls and an industrial stormwater system to capture and reuse rainwater. A draft Environmental Impact Report/Statement has been prepared for the project. The Planning Commission will consider a resolution certifying the final Environmental Impact Report, making findings of facts and statements of overriding considerations pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act, and approving a conditional use permit. APPLICANT: West Coast Recycling Group, LLC, 3033 Excelsior Blvd., Suite 485, Minneapolis, MN 55416. OWNER: Port of West Sacramento, 1110 West Capitol Avenue, West Sacramento, CA 95691.

Charline Hamilton, Secretary
West Sacramento Planning Commission

If you challenge any of the above items in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence on these matters, delivered to the City of West Sacramento at, or prior to, the public hearing. Any written correspondence delivered to the City before the action on this matter will become a part of the administrative record.

YOLO COUNTY HOUSING
Will be accepting Applications for the
Housing Choice Voucher (Section 8) and Public Housing Wait Lists

Pre-Applications will be accepted online at www.ycha.org Monday, May 16, 2011, 8:00 a.m. until May 26, 2011, 5:00 p.m. at the latest

The wait list may be closed earlier, depending on the volume of applications received

The Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) provides rental assistance for low-income households that meet federally established eligibility criteria. 75% of all households admitted must be below 30% of the median income, adjusted for family size, at time of admission to the program. The maximum income limit is 50% of median income, adjusted by family size. Yolo County Housing (YCH) conducts eligibility and preference screening as part of the selection process. Participants pay between 30 and 40% of the household income as their share of the rent during the first term of the lease.

Project Based Vouchers has two (2) wait lists: one for complexes that provide support services for households with special needs due to a disability, and one for complexes that do not provide support services. Project based vouchers are attached to specific apartment complexes, and households are subsidized only while they rent those units.

Yolo County Housing (YCH) also owns rental units in Esparto, Knights Landing, West Sacramento, Winters, Woodland and Yolo. Each site has a separate wait list. When an appropriately sized unit becomes available, an eligible family will be offered the unit. 60% of households admitted to tenancy must be below 30% of median income, adjusted for family size. The maximum limit is 80% of median income. YCH is the landlord and conducts tenant screening in addition to eligibility and preference screening.

USDA Farm Labor Housing is limited to families whose income is derived from agricultural labor and meet eligibility requirements established by the Rural Development Administration. There are seven scattered units in the city of Davis (six 3-bedroom units and one 4-bedroom unit).

Cottonwood Meadows Senior Housing is a senior only complex, owned by our subsidiary non-profit. It is located in Woodland; it has 47 one-bedroom units, of which 13 are subsidized through the State of California.

How do I apply?

Applying is easy! Complete the pre-application online at www.ycha.org . You will need to have the name, date of birth and social security number of all household members.

You may apply for one list only, or you may apply for all lists for which you are eligible and in which you are interested. Some programs/wait lists have special requirements, such as USDA Farm Labor Housing, Cottonwood Meadows, or Project Based Vouchers with Support Services. Not all applicants will meet the additional requirements for these programs. In addition, please do not apply for a wait list in any location you are not willing to move to.

Your position on the wait list will be determined by local preferences, along with date and time of your application. Final eligibility will be based on these factors, along with income level for household, the results of criminal (for violent or drug-related activity within the last three years) and sexual predator background checks. For YCH rental units, there will be additional tenant screening criteria.

Zoning Ordinance, 17.22.052(A), Waterfront (WF) Zone	General Plan Reference—RMU Riverfront Mixed Use. This designation provides for marinas, restaurants, retail, amusement, hotel and motel uses, mid-rise and high-rise offices, multifamily residential uses which are oriented principally to the river, public and quasi-public uses, and similar and compatible uses. All development under this designation shall be approved pursuant to a master development plan (e.g., specific plan). Unless specified otherwise in an adopted specific plan, the following shall apply: (1) Residential densities shall be at least 25.1 units per acre. (2) Projects with residential densities below twenty-~~six~~ five units per acre shall be subject to discretionary review and approval. (3) The FAR for offices shall not exceed 10.00; and the FAR for all other uses shall not exceed 3.00. (4) The RMU designation is assumed to have an average of 2.25 persons per dwelling units. (5) It is applied to relatively large, vacant or underutilized areas adjacent to the Sacramento River and barge canal.	Clarification added to acknowledge adopted plans with differing standards supersede the general development standards contained in the zoning ordinance.
Zoning Ordinance, 17.25.010, Lot Development Standards Matrix	Add the following footnote for Zone W-F, Maximum Floor Area Ratio and Maximum Height columns of the matrix: [3] Except as provided for in an adopted specific plan.	Clarification added to acknowledge differing development standards.
Zoning Ordinance, 17.25.034, Exceptions to Floor Area Ratio for Hospitals and Hotels	Increases above the maximum permitted FAR shall only be considered for hotels and hospitals, and only with approval of a use permit, unless otherwise specified for the property in an adopted specific plan. This can be considered when the applicant can demonstrate that the proposed development will: (1) generate low peak-hour traffic; (2) will not create a dominating visual prominence. In each case where an increase in the maximum permitted FAR has been allowed, all other development standards for the site must be met.	Clarification added to acknowledge differing development standards.
Zoning Ordinance, 17.32.030(A) Maximum Allowable Noise Exposure, Transportation Noise Sources Table	The following footnote shall be added to the "Outdoor Activity Areas" column for "Residential", "Transient Lodging", and "Hotels, Nursing Homes" land uses: [4] Outdoor activity areas such as private balconies on residential buildings may be constructed within the Bridge District Specific Plan area in areas that are predicted to exceed 70 Ldn provided that an alternative common outdoor activity area for the residences is designated that meets the City's performance criteria.	New policy added specific to the Bridge District in accordance with the certified EIR.
Zoning Ordinance, 17.34.045 Lighting	Parking lot lighting shall be required. All lighting used to illuminate an off-street parking or loading area shall be so arranged as to direct light away from any adjoining lots and public streets. Urban off-street parking and loading areas located within adopted specific plan areas shall comply with the lighting requirements of the applicable specific plan.	Clarification added to acknowledge differing lighting standards.

The Interact Club at River City High School brings the "Wild in West Sacramento" student art show, now through June 30. You can visit the exhibit at the West Sacramento Community Center, 1075 West Capitol Avenue.

Seniors & transportation
Learn about local transportation options open to seniors in West Sacramento. Representatives from the City, YoloBus and other providers will present information and answer questions from 9:30 a.m. to noon at the community center, 1075 West Capitol Avenue, on May 20. Seniors and their families are invited. Coffee & snacks provided. For information, call 617-2288 or visit www.bryteandbroderick.org.

Golden Years
The Golden Years Club, serving people age 50+, will have a pot luck dinner at the VFW Hall, 905 Drever St., at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 17. Please bring your own service. For membership information, call 371-7306.

Fruit trees
The UC Cooperative Master Gardeners will offer a free class on pruning young fruit trees, and on growing them in limited space, from 9-11 a.m. on Sat., May 14, at Woodland Community College, 2300 E. Gibson Road, Woodland. For more information, call (530) 666-8143.

Kids' car wash
Stonegate Elementary School will hold a car wash on May 21 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Advanced Auto, corner of Westacre and Merkley (near Raley's). Your dirty car will help send 6th grade science students to Sly Park.

Thanks, jurors
All those who have served as a juror in Yolo Superior Court during the year are invited to an open house at the court from 3-4 p.m. on Friday, May 13, for some refreshments and a token of appreciation.

Mystery writers
Four mystery writers who are members of "Capital Crimes," the Sacramento Chapter of Sisters in Crime International, will discuss their books and take questions at a public event at 6:30 p.m. on June 8 at the West Sacramento library branch, 1212 Merkley Avenue. The four are Pat Centerbury, L.F. Crawford, Nan Mahon and Cindy Sample. For information, call 375-6465.

BBQ wings
The West Sacramento Moose Lodge at 3240 Jefferson Blvd. will host a "wing night" with several varieties of chicken wings available for dine-in or to-go, from 6-8 p.m. on Friday, May 20. Proceeds support the American Cancer Society's "Relay for Life." There will be DJ music. For information, call Debbie Norton-Johnson, 916-600-1652.

Conservation
The Yolo Land Trust will hold its "Birds, Berries & Bouquets" celebration on May 22 to raise money for its mission of conserving farmland in Yolo County. Visit an assemblage of native plants at Hedgerow Farms, enjoy treats and local wines, and bring your binoculars to check out the birds and pollinating insects. Tickets are $30 (bring a friend for another $10). Visit www.yololandtrust.org.

Yard sale
The annual community yard sale at San Pedro Park (708 Hobson Dr., near Lisbon) is scheduled for Sat., June 4, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Reserve a 6' table for $15. Email lfreitas@aol.com.

Bulky junk
The City of West Sacramento will offer a "bulky waste drop-off event" from May 18-21 at 540 Harbor Blvd. You can visit on weekdays 4-7 p.m. or Saturday between 9 a.m. & 3 p.m., and drop off unwanted furniture, mattresses & box springs, cardboard, or tires (up to 9). Bring proof of city residency (city utility bill or driver's license) to enter. Those age 65+ or with disabilities may qualify for a free pick-up appointment – call 617-4589. Scrap metal won't be accepted at the event, but you can take scrap metal and metal appliances at no charge to J&M Metal Recycling, 2205 Rice Ave., between 8-5 Monday through Saturday. Wood and green wastes also aren't accepted at the drop-off event, but your city utility bill for April includes a voucher for free disposal at the landfill. For more information on any of this, visit www.WestSacRecycles.org or 617-4589.

Book fair
Southport Elementary School will host is spring Scholastic Book Fair on Sat., May 14, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and Monday-Friday May 16-20 from 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Funds raised will help support school and class libraries. The fair will kick off with a carnival with a bounce house, games, refreshments and more, from 10-2 on May 14. The book fair will offer specially priced books, including popular series, award-winners, adult bestsellers and more.

Redistricting
As required by law, the Yolo County Board of Supervisors has established a committee to help update the boundaries of supervisors' districts. The committee will hold two public meetings before it draws up several alternatives for presentation to the board by August 1. One such public meeting will be at 6:30 p.m. on May 18 in West Sacramento City Hall. For more information, visit www.yolocounty.org.

Golf
The West Sacramento Chamber of Commerce plans its annual "Golf Classic" on Thursday, June 16 at Wildhorse Golf Club in Davis. Sponsorships are available. Cost for a foursome in the "Mixed Foursome Scramble" is $500, or $150 per player, including green fees, cart, beverages, gift bag, and dinner. Contact the chamber at 371-7042 or info@westsacramentochamber.com. Register online at www.westsacramentochamber.com.

Chili!
The West Sacramento Kiwanis will hold their "Chili Challenge" on Sunday, May 22, from 11-4 at the Moose Lodge, 3240 Jefferson Blvd. Admission is free, and taste chili for $10. There will also be arts and crafts, a raffle and a kids' area. Proceeds benefit the Kiwanis Family House, offering inexpensive lodging to families with a child needing to stay in a hospital. For information, call Steve McIntire, 467-7306, or email semdbsc@att.net.

Drug-exposed kids
A two-day workshop on prenatal exposure to alcohol and drugs, and the steps birth parents must go through to overcome addiction, is planned for 6:30-9:30 p.m. on Friday, May 13, and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on May 14, presented by the Woodland Community College Foster and Kinship Care Education Program. Free and open to the public; you may attend either or both classes. Contact Cherie Schroeder at (530) 574-1964 or cherie@yolofostercare.com. For more information on this and other parenting-related classes, visit www.yolofostercare.com.

Get that refund
Many families earning up to $49,000 per year can get free tax assistance that will help them get an Earned Income Tax Credit refund. To find out more about how to claim your credit and get your federal refund, call the Yolo County Children's Alliance at 1-866-607-4030 or 916-572-0560. Tax-filing help is available through Oct. 15 and ask about "Voluntary Income Tax Assistance" in West Sacramento.

Business expo
The West Sacramento Chamber of Commerce plans its River Walk Business Expo from 3-6 p.m. on May 24 at the River Walk Promenade, 651 2nd Street. Booth space is available for rental to businesses. Admission is free to the public. Call 371-7042 for information.

For art education
